Purification of the Democracy

An Eastern paper has a long article on this subject which has attracted considerable attention, and which coming from a Democratic source has much significance. It admits that the Democratic party has debased itself has lost all the qualities which once made it honorable and has done deeds which if not in themselves treasonable have furnished to traitors, opportunities to put the Nation in peril. For all these and other grave offenses, which in the words of Senator Conness, have made "Democracy only a name to cover crime and cowardice," the article insists that there must be a thorough purification. Such an absolute and entire washing of the institution as will in fact leave nothing so far as we can see, but the name. There is a strong reluctance to permit the name—so full of fascination—to be used by rebel sympathisers as a sign and a show to deceive the unwary, who have been taught to believe that whatever was hailed as Democracy deserved popular confidence and support. We must be pardoned for believing that there is a great deal of humbug in all this, and yet there is more or less humbug in all party names. The word Democracy is doubtless a tower of strength which ought not to belong to disloyal men. They will steal it if it is not taken care of, and in that view there is some force in the suggestions which we quote, though for ourselve, we frankly say we are satisfied with the Union party as a name and an organization at least so long as the war lasts, and we hope when the war is over, that there will never be a party, which is not in favor of the Union first, last and always. The theory of the writer is that hereafter, and growing out of the social revolution which is working underneath the war, there will arise in place of the former grand political divisions of the country, two parties which will be the progressive Democracy and the conservative or Copperheads, and he thus urges the necessity and expediency of accepting this theory and acting upon it:

If the gentlemen who are now meeting in Union Conventions, to which the so-called War Democrats adhere, will but lay these facts to heart, and take the thing properly in hand, there can be no other parties but these two in the country. There is but one great issue before the people. The antagonistic principles of democracy and aristocracy are making their final struggle for the possession of mankind. Loyalty, the maintenance of the Union and support of the war are, therefore only incidents to the superior question. All the generous and beneficent ideas are on the one side, and all the vile and pernicious ones are on the other. Let us, therefore, have a watchword worthy of the cause. The term Union party is too vague, the term Republican is exhausted and abused, and the term War Democrat is too limited for the broad doctrines of the class it indicates. There is no other term, therefore, for those who support the nation, advocate the war, execrate slavery, and defend the rights of labor, but that of the Regular Democracy. Under this banner its battles must be fought, and under that talisman the most honorable victories can be won. That banner was cast away and its principles discarded by its regular custodians, and the Republicans who have picked it up and planted it before them are entitled to its halo. There is no better name, none half so good. All the great victories of politics have been won under it, and we doubt if anything enduring can be won without it. With the masses of men there is more power in a watchword than a principle and while the intelligent devotees of doctrine will follow their faith into whatever camp it leads them the multitude will stand aloof until they behold their accustomed signals marshaling the way. Over the minds, even of the most intelligent, these signs and emblems of a cause have an almost religious influence, and in relation to the War Democrats, who form so large a portion of the Union party, we feel that the suggested title would be a just concession.

We commend these views to the early deliberation of Union Conventions, wherever they may meet. They are founded upon an accurate knowledge of human nature and of party instinct, and if the mere policy of party is to be consulted, we direct the attention of those Conventions to the fact that expunged as the South is from the National councils, the progressive party hold but a bare majority in the popular branch, and that some spell must be appealed to to speedily unite the multitude against the threatened influx of the unpurified Southern flood, which conservatism again threatens to let in. Let the loyal Democrats therefore, abandon the conservative banner to the Copperheads and let there be but one banner henceforth for the true Democracy. If that be inscribed, equal rights, wages for labor, National supremacy, and the republican unity of the continent, the party that rallies under it must inevitably win.

Swells.—Great men never swell. It is only the three cent individuals who are salaried at the rate of two hundred dollars a year who put on airs and flashy vests, swell, puff and blow, and endeavor to give themselves a consequential appearance. No discriminating person need mistake the spurious for the genuine article.

Supreme Court.—The following decisions were rendered by the Supreme Court on Monday last: Lownsdale et al vs Coffin, Chapman et al—Multnomah County Land Case—Bill dismissed on hearing as to Coffin and decree in his favor for costs. Demurrer of deft Chapman overruled and as to him cause remanded to Circuit Court with leave to deft to answer.

Boon vs McLane—Clackamas—Decree of Circuit Court reversed. Decree for plaintiff.

Chapman vs Lownsdale, Multnomah—Relating to lot in Portland. Continued to next term for further argument upon points presented.

State of Oregon vs Burchard, Multnomah. Judgment of Circuit Court affirmed.

Terrance et al vs Meek, et al, Multnomah. Referred for statement of account. Report to be filed next term.

The Plea for the Negro.—The Mobile Register says: "The negro is no longer an object of small talk in the South. The people of the South have a place for him, and that is in the army. There should be no distinction of color," says the Register, "when a man is willing to fight for his home and master."

We commend the above to the attention of Northern confederates and sympathizers and all others, whose high toned souls were so exercised when the Government proposed to use negro troops to aid in the war. Rebels can see "no distinction of color when a man (mark it—a man not a slave or nigger!) is wishing to fight for his home and master." Why then should there be any distinction when he fights for the Union and to preserve the institutions of the country?

Appointments.—The following is a list of Deputy Provost Marshals, appointed by Provost Marshal Keeler, who have qualified and entered upon the discharge of their official duties:

John Fullerton, of Douglas county
A A Skinner, of Lane county
Marion F Mulkey, of Multnomah county

Beauregard's "Retaliation."—The Richmond Enquirer, dated August 28th, says:

The reply of Gen Beauregard to the demand for the surrender of Fort Sumter and Morris Island, under Gilmore's threat to bombard Charleston, at first provoked a smile. The idea of retaliation implied returning the fire, but it could not have been retaliation in kind that Gen Beauregard threatened. We are not advised as to the nature of the retaliation, but we believe that Charleston can be protected from another such barbarous shelling, by transporting from Libby and Belle Isle a few thousand Yankee prisoners, and confining them in the warehouses of Charleston. They can be as easily fed there as here and the citizens would guard them if they believed their confinement would enable them to remain with safety at their homes. Fill as many of the warehouses as possible in different parts of the city; distribute the Yankee prisoners well over the city and then inform Gen Gilmore that Charleston invites his shells. Should he get into the lower harbor, he would not fire into the city. As there is no prospect of a speedy renewal of exchange these prisoners might as well be defending Charleston and Mobile from a barbarous shelling as basking in the cool shades of Belle Isle while the noble soldiers of the Confederate army are baking and stewing in the torrid furnace of Fort Delaware. Let the Yankees from Libby and Belle Isle be sent to reinforce the defense of Charleston. This kind of retaliation will teach Gilmore how to conduct the seige according to the rules of civilized warfare.

Contemptible Partisanship.—Daniel S Dickinson wrote a strong letter to the Union meeting at Springfield, Ill, in which he said:

I have been a lifelong Democrat, reveling in the sublime theories of Jefferson and rejoicing in the memorable illustrations of Jackson. These eminent Democrats taught their votaries that all men are created equal, and that the Union must be preserved. But while their true followers are proving their adherence to early teachings and are illustrating their faith by their works, a spurious edition has been issued, stealing the honored Democratic name for the purpose of giving aid and comfort to the rebellion, as the hypocrite steals the livery of the Court of Heaven to serve the Devil in. They issue bulls of excommunication with an assurance which would command a premium on brass, and while there are some Democrats who defy their impudence and scorn their fulminations there are yet many who fear they shall be lost if they separate from the Democratic organization, however spurious or artificial. But let all Democrats from principle be strong in their cherished faith. When Judas passes for a true disciple and Arnold for a patriot, when rats take the rank of lions and moping owls of eagles, then those who turn the cranks for the hand organs of party and grind out political music during the life struggle of the of the only free Government on earth, will be esteemed in the popular judgment worthy descendents of Jefferson and Jackson, and representatives of their principles.

Letter from Auburn

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

Auburn, August 28, 1863.

During the past week we have had considerable excitement about quartz. The supposed silver lead on the line of the ditch has been prospected and the rock now worked looks more favorable than ever, and some confident ones say they know it is all right, but for all that they may be disappointed. But gold is known to exist in this lead and another one having very strong indications of copper has been assayed in Portland and we have astonishing returns of $800 per ton in gold from it. Of course this produces much excitement in our hitherto quiet community and we look very anxiously for confirmation of our hopes.

During a few days past all the leads hitherto found have been eclipsed by reports from towards Burnt river, 15 or 20 miles from here, over the hill near Mud springs. Gold quartz leads have been discovered of exceeding richness. The prospectors and discoverers were a party of five that left Boise on purpose to look for quartz in that vicinity, being attracted by some one of their party having picked up a small piece of quartz that was rich in gold. This was done some months ago when the person was on the road to Boise. When times grew dull there he returned with a party to look for gold where he found this specimen.

The search resulted in the discovery of three different leads exceedingly rich in gold. The first discovered lead has been prospected by different companies for half a mile in length and all the croppings found to be rich. I have seen pieces of small size near half gold, and the solid quartz from the main ledge is speckled with the precious stuff as far down as they have sunk, and the other two leads found are said to be quite as rich as this. I learn that even as far back as 1850 a piece of gold was picked up near there weighing $4 and it seems now to be the richest gold region in this vicinity though barren of everything else. There large brush is all the chance for fuel and water is scarce, the nearest springs some two miles off. There is not a tree hereabouts, but should the gold prove abundant, it will be a charming country for all that.

Since a mania for quartz has set in, you may look out for a succession of discoveries, for most of our people have little else to do than prospect, and the season is becoming a delightful one for that purpose, and I stand ready to give you the items as they transpire.

Times are still dull here and much sickness prevails, and deaths by fevers are very common, many among children. There seems to be a prevailing epidemic at the present time, and this is naturally the most unhealthy season.

Among the emigrants now passing through Powder river valley is a recruit from Missouri for the colony of Germans at Aurora, Marion county, under the direction Dr Keil. This company consists of forty wagons and a large number of emigrants, who are reported to be doing very well, have had a very pleasant journey and their teams are all in excellent order. In fact they are said to be the best conditioned part of the emigration so far.

I see the Mountaineer has given you another very thrilling termination of the career of Enoch Fruit, all of which was pure bosh or imagination, as the man has probably stolen a dozen horses since that time, if he has had half a chance. Enoch will ultimately probably die in a state of suspense, which will relieve the world of all suspense concerning him.

I met an old character yesterday, driving about as lively as a cricket, and looking as if he could do so for an hundred years to come. He represents that he was born near Salem, Mass., A D 1776, and at the green old age of 97 is adventurous as any boy. Last year the old fellow was up to Cariboo, and last fall he married and settled down to make a permanent home here, marrying a young wife about 17 or 18 years of age, who is a big, buxom looking girl, such as might have comforted and nourished King David in his failing years.

Your explanation of our irregular mail arrangements is of course sufficient. Your correspondent supposed that this was a regular mail route, established last winter, which seems to have been a mistake. If we had a regular mail the Oregonian could find many subscribers here, as the paper is more circulated by the express companies than any other paper in this State.

The Supreme Court this morning decided the case of Lockey vs Fulton et al from Benton county, which involved the direct question of the constitutionality of the Legal Tender law of Congress. In the Court below Stratton, Justice, decided against its constitutionality. In the Supreme Court Judge Prim concurred with Judge Stratton. B[illegible] C J, Shattuck and Wells held the law constitutional. Judgment reversed.

Diversity of Opinion.—The Albany Democrat [illegible] the Polk county resolutions approvingly and says they have the "true Democratic ring." The Review publishes the same and thinks they haven't even a bid of Democratic squeal.

Our own opinion is if there is any "ring" about the whole affair, the rings are in the noses of the Douglas Democrats.—Statesman

Later from the Malheur.—A gentleman whose name we did not learn, arrived in town on Sunday, reports that he had come direct from the Sinker creek diggings. He estimates the distance from Canyon City at about 100 miles. That the mines are situated in a basin much resembling the Boise Basin, though apparently not so large. He could not tell whether it was on the Malheur or on Crooked river. He worked there eleven days and the result was $650, working with the pan.—State Journal

U S Circuit Court.—We regret to learn that on account of the sickness of Judge Deady, this Court was adjourned yesterday. Dr Wilson his physician, informs us that his state of health is such, that it is not likely that he will be able to hold the Court for several days. Notice of its session will be duly given.

Distinguished Visitors.—Count Castiglione, a member of the household of the King of Italy, and Major Achille de Vecchy, of the Italian army, accompanied by their suite, are at present stopping at the Pioneer Hotel, in this city. We are informed that these distinguished personages have, for the last year, been on a tour through the United States, gaining general information, and collecting curiosities, and purchasing animals—such as buffalo, bear, deer and elk, for shipment to their native country. They have made the trip overland, coming north via Fort Colville. These gentlemen, though of noble lineage, are said to be thoroughly Democratic, and express themselves highly pleased with the institutions of our country.

The New Mines.—From a gentleman, who arrived from Salem last evening, we learn that the excitement in regard to the newly discovered gold placers, is unabated. Messrs Moores of Salem, and S B Parrish of this city, had come in for supplies, bringing with them a nugget the size of a hen's egg, nine tenths of which was pure gold. We shall be able in a few days, to give more particulars in regard to this new El Dorado.

County Court.—Mary McQuade appointed administratrix of the estate of Peter McQuade, deceased.

First Monday in November was fixed for the final settlement of the estate of J S Simmons, deceased.

P. Mackin, appointed administrator of the estate of John Clary, deceased.

A O Gibbs, appointed guardian minor heirs of R Hoyt, deceased.

Had to Take Down his Colors.—While Mr. Hallock, the present City Surveyor, was a member of the Common Council last year, that body passed an ordinance requiring occupants of houses which contained small pox patients, to place a red flag in front of their buildings, denoting the infection of the place. While the gentleman above referred to was surveying a lot in the southern part of the city, his assistant was obliged to place a little red signal flag in front of a building, which brought out an elderly female inhabitant, who protested against the proceeding, as it not that she had no small pox patients in her family, and the young man was compelled to haul in his flag until the arrival of Mr Hallock, who, after considerable parley, induced her to let the dread signal remain.

Presentation.—Mr John Everest, the leader of the Mechanics' Brass Band, was the recipient of a fine brass cornet, last evening. Mr T B Trevitt, on behalf of a number of citizens, made an appropriate presentation speech, at Armory Hall, in presence of the Band, and the Portland Guards. After which Mr Everest marched his friends, preceded by the stirring music, down town and treated to refreshments. Mr E G Randall displayed his usual good taste in the selection of the instrument.

Cider.—Our old friend, W P Watson, called yesterday—looking hale and hearty—and left a gallon of the pure juice of the apple. The "prints," as well as his "satanic majesty," with one accord, pronounced it "very good."

Oysters.—Don't fail to call on Frank Dekum, if you want a "square oyster stew," or a delicious cup of coffee. See his advertisement in another column.

Go Slow.—See advertisement with this head, and govern yourself accordingly.

To Rent.—A convenient dwelling house. See advertisement.

Opening Letters.—A Massachusetts Judge has decided that a husband may open his wife's letters on the ground so often and clearly stated by Theophilus Parsons of Cambridge that "the husband and the wife are one, and the husband is that one."

Attention Hibernians.—The regular monthly meeting of the Hibernian Benevolent Society will be held at their Hall this evening. A full attendance is requested.

The Scandinavian.—Mr J L Kingsley has purchased E P Stowall's interest in the Scandinavian Restaurant. Mr K has had much experience here and elsewhere in his business and we are sure that under his care this already well known and respectable establishment will not be excelled in the city.

Heretofore many have found it necessary to send abroad to obtain an outfit for Housekeeping. That necessity has now ceased, as will be seen by a visit to the FURNITURE WAREHOUSE of HURGREN & SHINDLER, corner First and Salmon streets, south end of Portland. They are now opening some of the finest styles of goods, and have the best assortment ever found this side of San Francisco. Their place of business will be found by noting the red flag sign over the building. oodtf

In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries or the expediency of adopting them in practice It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague and eradicates it from the system is acknowledged by all Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a tedious and scientific run of disease? A Rich Decision.—The following is related by the S. F. Call correspondent at Steamboat Springs, Nevada Territory:

And possibly it may be interesting to you to know how Governor Roop came to deliver himself of that burst of inspiration. Two years ago, during the season of avalanches, Tom Rust's ranch slid down from the mountain side and pretty nearly covered up a ranch belonging to Dick Sides. Some of the boys in Carson City thought the circumstances offered a fair opportunity for playing a joke on our former simple minded Attorney General, old Mr Bunker, and they got Sides to employ him to bring suit in a Referee's Court for the recovery of his ranch, which Mr. S. did, alleging that Rust now claimed the surface of the ground as his own, although he freely admitted that the ranch underneath it belonged to Sides, who, it grieved him to reflect, would probably never see his property again. Mr Bunker was naturally stunned at so preposterous a proposition, and bade his client be of good cheer, and count without fear upon the restoration of his rights. The Court room was crowded. Roop, as Judge Referee, presided with a grave dignity in keeping with his lofty position; the Sheriff guarded the sacred precincts of the Court from disturbance and indecorum with exaggerated vigilance. The witnesses were examined, and all the evidence of any value went in favor of General Bunker's client. The General appeared with eleven solemn law books under his arm, and with the light of triumph beaming in his eye, and made a ponderous speech of two hours in length. The opposing counsel replied feebly, by design, and the case went to the Judge. All who heard Judge Roop's inspired decision and noted the holy serenity of his countenance when he gave it, will cherish the memory of it while they continue to live in a world where meteors of joy flash only at intervals athwart a sky darkened with clouds of sorrow always! He said: "Gentlemen, I have listened with profound interest to the arguments of counsel in this important case, and while I admit that the reasoning of the distinguished gentleman who appeared for the plaintiff was almost resistless, and that all the law and evidence adduced are in favor of his client, yet considerations of a far more sacred and exalted nature than these compel me to decide for the defendant, and to decree that the property remain in his possession. The Almighty created the earth and all that is in it, and who shall presume to dictate to Him the disposition of His handiwork? If He saw that defendant's ranch was too high up the hill, and chose, in His infinite wisdom, to move it down to a more eligible location, albeit to the detriment of the plaintiff and his ranch, it is meet that we bow in humble submission to His will, without inquiring into His motives or questioning His authority. My verdict, therefore, is, gentlemen, that the plaintiff, Sides, has lost his ranch by the dispensation of God!" The monstrous verdict paralyzed Mr Bunker where he stood. The crowd of spectators, defying the Sheriffs, shook the house with laughter. But after the Court adjourned poor Bunker, oblivious of the joke, hunted up Governor Roop, and asked to appeal the case. The great Judge frowned upon him with severe dignity, for a moment, and then replied solemnly, that there was no appeal from the decision of the Lord! Cursing Roop's imbecility, the General told me afterwards that the only recourse ever offered his client was the privilege, if the defendant would give his consent, of either removing Rust's ranch, or digging his own out from under it! That hoax finally drove Mr Bunker back to New Hampshire, and lost to us the densest intellect the President ever conferred upon the Territory.

A Spunky Union Bride.—A few days ago a young married lady of Collinsville, Ill., appeared at the office of the Department Provost Marshal General, with the information that her husband, one Capt. Ripley, was a rebel, had been in the rebel army, and that recently he had been sending quinine and other contraband articles to Memphis, and thence through the Federal lines to the rebel States. She asked that he should be arrested and suitably punished for his treasonable acts. She told when and where he could be found, and accordingly he was soon in the hands of the Federal police, handcuffed, and sent off to Myrtle street prison, where he will remain until one of the military commissions can sentence him to hard labor in the old Alton penitentiary until the close of the war. That is the punishment which seems to be regularly awarded to the perpetrators. The history of her marriage to the gallant captain she related to be this: When visiting friends in this city, six or eight weeks ago, some one of them introduced Ripley as a proper person whom he or she had met in the city. After an acquaintance of a few days he courted her, and she agreed to marry him, depending on the opinion of her friends that he would make a very proper husband. A few days after the wedding he obtained about half her money to trade and speculate with, and in a little while after informed her he had bought quinine with it to send South; that he was certain his speculation would result profitably, and he asked for the rest of her money to engage in another speculation of the same kind. He further informed her of his rebel sympathies, and that he had been a captain in the rebel army. This was more than she could, and she resolved to have him arrested and punished, and get a divorce from him as soon as she could.

Taken Under Advisement.—In one of the Dutch settlements of the Mohawk Valley, a very honest old farmer was appointed Justice of the Peace. It was not supposed that Squire F—— had amassed much learning, but he was quite noted for his unsophisticated honesty and frankness—indeed a blunt Dutchman, whose heart never erred, but whose head had very little connection with it in the discharge of his official functions. It happened that his first case was quite hotly contested by lawyers on both sides. They summed it up elaborately and after they got through quoting from "Cowen's Treaties," the bar room of the hotel (his office) being crowded with spectators, to hear the first decision of the new Justice, the old man deliberately folded up his docket, put it under his arm, lit his pipe, and thus delivered himself: "Yell, shentlemen, I shall take four days to decide, but shall effentually find shugement for the plaintiff."

A Patriot's Zeal.—Yes sir, we've got a war, and the troo Patrit has to make sacrifises, you bet. I have alreddy given two cousins to the war & stand reddy to sacrifise my wife's brother, rather'n not see the rebelyun krusht. And if wuss cums to wuss, I'll shed every drop of blud my able bodid relations has got to prosekoot the war. I think sumbody oughter be prosekooted, and it may as well be the war as any bodyelse. When I git a goaking lit onto me it's no use to try ter stop me.—A. Ward (Showman.)

A seven year old boy, lately heard to use profane language on being reproved by his mother, and directed to ask God's forgiveness, retired to his room and was overheard to say: "O God, I am very sorry I said that naughty word, and I won't say so any more; but please hurry and make me grow up to be a man, and then I can swear as much as I want to, like pa, and nobody will notice it."

State Elections.—The New York general election will take place on Tuesday, November 3d, when a Secretary of State, Comptroller, State Treasurer, Attorney General, State Engineer and Surveyor, Canal Commissioner, Inspector of State Prisons, Judge of the Court of Appeals, eight Justices of the Supreme Court, one Judge of the Superior Court in New York city, county Judges, Treasurers and Surrogates in most of the counties, and members of the Senate and Assembly, will be voted for.

Pennsylvania elects a Governor and Judge of the Supreme Court on the 2d Tuesday in October.

Wisconsin will elect new State officers on November 3.

Delaware will vote for a member of Congress Nov. 10, in place of Robert Temple, deceased.

Massachusetts holds her annual election on the 1st Tuesday in November, when a full State ticket will be chosen.

Minnesota will on Nov. 10, elect a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General and Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Iowa holds her election Nov. 10, when she will choose a Governor, Lieut. Governor and Judge of the Supreme Court.

Ohio votes October 13 for a Governor, Lieut. Governor, Supreme Judge, Auditor, Treasurer and Board of Public Works.

Maryland, on October 4, selects State officers and six members of Congress.

West Virginia elects three members of Congress this fall, but the date of her election we cannot ascertain.

The Kentucky, California, Vermont and Maine elections have already taken place, and these States are all strongly Union.

Gen. Grant's Speech at Memphis.—At the grand banquet given to the hero of Vicksburg at Memphis, on the 26th of August, the following toast was proposed:

"General Grant—Your Grant and my Grant. Having granted us victories, grant us the restoration of the Old Flag; grant us supplies so that we may grant to our friends the grant to us."

This was received with deafening cheers and loud calls for General Grant, who responded in these words:

"I thank you gentlemen for your kindness. All that will add to your prosperity that is in my power to do I will grant you."

Not quite three lines. Evidently he is not a man of words, but rather of deeds.

Vallandigham.—This political scapegoat—who has been sent forth into the wilderness with the sins of the copperheads on his back—lately said to some friends (even the devil has friends) at Windsor, opposite Detroit, that he had great faith in the people, in Providence, in the race. It is probably true that neither the people, Providence nor the race have faith in Vallandigham.—Marysville Appeal.

MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION."

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,

LAWYERS,

PHYSICIANS,

CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?

Do you want a good appetite?

Do you want to build up your constitution?

Do you want to feel well?

Do you want to get rid of nervousness?

Do you want energy?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August [illegible]

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours,

ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
